

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 21, 1882.

THE colored man whose daily walk
Is upright and correct,
With every worthy citizen,
Will find his true respect.
Such men are honored everywhere.
Their color white or black,
And he can't prove it otherwise;
That Buckeye jumping-jack.

CASTLE Gault has nine boarders this week.

Snow, rain and hail to-day by way of variety.

SLICED ham and beef on sale at G. W. Geisel's Equity Grocery. fl62wd

Mrs. MARY DILLON has for sale a good house in the lower part of the city.

BUTTER is very scarce this week. It commands thirty-five cents a pound.

HEAVY reduction in fresh oysters, fish and canned goods. JOHN WHEELER. 1md 31, Market street.

Mr. J. HENRY PECOR has moved into his new store and is exhibiting a very handsome stock of boots and shoes. His prices are very low.

The Directors of the U. S. Mint have decided that refilling the holes in coin with silver and gold does not make the coin fit for circulation as legal currency.

OTHER things being equal, it is authoritatively stated that the lands in counties which have pikes have a value of from 200 to 500 per cent. higher than the lands in mud road counties.

THE ball given by the Maysville Rifles, at Neptune Hall, Monday night, proved to be a very pleasant affair, and was well-attended. The company fund was increased by about seventy dollars.

THE wife and daughter of Mr. George Bolinger, of Stone Lick, were buried at the cemetery on Sunday, victims of typhoid pneumonia. This is the third time death has invaded the household within a few weeks.

MESSRS. A. R. GLASCOCK & Co's new store will be one of the handsomest and most convenient in the city. They will move into it as soon as the repairs and improvements are completed. An elevator is to be one of the conveniences.

To Buyers of Boots and Shoes.

My new boot and shoe store, two doors below the Bank of Maysville, will be open for business next Monday. Everybody is invited to call and see me.

1561d J. HENRY PECOR.

THE marriage of Miss Belle Nesbitt, daughter of Hon. J. M. Nesbitt, of Owingsville, to Mr. Sam. M. Hall, of this place will take place at Owingsville on Tuesday morning, the 28th inst. They will leave immediately for the South.

THE river rose about a foot last night and is still coming up. It is raining at Pittsburg, and the outlook seems favorable for an old fashioned flood. The water is already over Second street, on the east side of Limestone and in several of the houses in that vicinity, but there has been no serious damage as yet.

LANDRETH's celebrated garden seed fresh from the farms near Philadelphia, may be had at wholesale and retail at Chenoweth & Co's., drug store. These seeds are tested before being placed on the market and therefore cannot fail to give perfect satisfaction, and the varieties are all that can be desired. If you want to garden successfully you will use Landreth's seed.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere

Rev. John Barbour, will return to Louisville this.

Mr. Frank W. Armstrong, of Hillsboro, O., is visiting friends in Maysville.

Miss Dorsie Stanton will leave tomorrow, to visit friends at Covington and Cincinnati.

Mr. George W. Oldham, editor of the Morning Call, is at Frankfort.

Mr. F. C. PETRY is at home after a successful business tour through Ohio and other states.

Rev. W. E. Sedden, of Stone Lick, who is confined to his bed with typhoid fever, we regret to say, is no better. Two members of the family of Mrs. B. M. Darnall, in the same neighborhood, are also sick with the disease.

Supper.

A supper is announced to be given at Neptune Hall, on Tuesday evening the 28th inst., for the benefit of the Good Templars of this city. The selection of partners for the supper will be made in a novel manner. Each lady who attends is expected to bring a neck-tie made by herself, which is enclosed in an envelope with a card bearing her name. The envelopes containing the ties are mixed together and sold to the gentlemen present, and each one is obliged to escort the lady whose name is found on the card falling to his lot. The plan is sure to afford much amusement. The supper will be an excellent one, and there will be good music in attendance.

The Flood.

CINCINNATI, February 21, 1882.—The high water has caused great damage here. Several street next to the river are under water and many houses, factories and coal yards are submerged. The railroad tracks in several places are covered with water and it has been necessary to discontinue several street car routes.

At Lawrenceburg, Ind., over three hundred families have been obliged to remove from their homes, and several saw-mills and factories have been much damaged. Several streets are under water.

Business Failure.

LOUISVILLE KY., February 21, 1882.—The Newcomb-Buchanan Distilling Company has made an assignment. The liabilities are about a million dollars.

Increase of Small-Pox at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, February 21, 1882.—The reports at the Health office show a considerable increase in the number of new cases of small-pox. There were twenty-two fresh cases reported yesterday.
